Catnip Tuna Treats for Cats

Also known as Kitty Yum Yums, these tuna treats are sure to please the most discriminating cats in your family.

$\frac{1}{2}$ Cup Whole Wheat Flour

$\frac{1}{2}$ Cup Dry Milk Powder

$\frac{1}{2}$ Can Tuna, in oil

1 Tablespoon Vegetable Oil

1 Egg, beaten

$\frac{1}{4}$ Cup Water

$\frac{1}{4}$ Cup finely crushed dry catnip, for rolling the balls in

Preheat oven to 350 degrees and spray a large cookie sheet with cooking spray. In a large bowl, mash the tuna so that there are no large lumps. Mix the flour and dry milk into the tuna until thoroughly combined. Add water and oil, mix well. Beat egg until foamy, add and combine thoroughly. The dough will be sticky.

Shape the dough into tiny balls, about the size of a marble. Roll the balls in crushed catnip.

Place the balls on a cookie sheet and flatten slightly. Bake for 10 minutes; remove from the oven and let rest for 5 minutes. Turn the treats over and bake an additional 10 minutes until browned.

Cool the treats completely before giving to your cat. Store in an airtight container in the refrigerator or a cool, dry place.
